

2010 Workforce Education Individual Achievement Award

The Kelso Longview Chamber of Commerce is seeking nominations for the 2010 Workforce Education Individual Achievement Award

This award honors individuals who have demonstrated achievement in providing high quality workforce education and training in Cowlitz County. This award recognizes individuals who promote, develop, and implement workforce programs that:

- Are innovative in nature;
- Improve the preparation and/or performance of the emerging or incumbent workforce;
- Have measurable outcome; and
- Demonstrate collaboration between business, government, and education.

The following individuals were winners the previous three(3) years and are not eligible this year:

Workforce Education - Individual Achievement

2007 - Sarah Flohr, Cowlitz Bank

2008 - James McLaughlin, Lower Columbia College

2009 – John Krause, Lower Columbia College

Please submit the following information along with a summary (500 words or less) as to why this individual should receive the Workforce Education Individual Achievement Award

Name of Nominee: _____ Title/Position: _____

Name of Business Where Nominee is Employed: _____

Type of Business: _____

Business Address: _____

Business Phone: _____ Number of Business Employees: _____

Number of years nominee has been employed by business: _____

Please return your nominations to Amy Johnson at the Chamber office, or by fax to 360-423-0432. Deadline is March 31, 2010.

Kelso Longview
C H A M B E R O F C O M M E R C E
The Voice of Business

2010 Workforce Education Best Practice Award

The Kelso Longview Chamber of Commerce is seeking nominations for the 2010 Workforce Education Best Practice Award (Employer)

This award honors employer organizations that have demonstrated achievement in providing high quality workforce education and training in Cowlitz County.
This award recognizes employer organizations that develop and implement programs that:

- Are innovative in nature;
- Improve the preparation and/or performance of emerging or incumbent workforce;
- Have measurable outcome; and
- Demonstrate collaboration between business, government, and education.

The following companies were winners the previous three(3) years and are not eligible this year:

Workforce Education - Best Practice

2007 - Equa-Chlor, LLC

2008 - Woodinville Lumber/Tri County Truss

2009 - Columbia Analytical Services, Inc.

Please submit the following information along with a summary (500 words or less) as to why this business should receive the *Workforce Education Best Practice Award

Business Name: _____

Name of Owner/CEO/Manager: _____

Phone: _____ Fax: _____

Number of people employed at business: _____

Date business was established: _____

Please return your nominations to Amy Johnson at the Chamber office, or by fax to 360-423-0432.
Deadline is March 31, 2010.